

MEREDITH AUTRY

A graduate of University of North Carolina at Charlotte, Meredith Autry's passions include getting to know others on a personal level and helping them to achieve their goals by capitalizing on their unique skill set and positive character traits.

A former Restaurant Manager, Meredith's career was brought to new heights by joining the Mark Tribus Group Team and expanding her wealth of knowledge in business organization and financial planning.

With 3 years of experience in middle grades education, Meredith's experience includes time as a Math and Science teacher. Meredith earned her bachelor's degree in Middle Grades Education and developed a passion for connecting with children on a personal level to help them reach their full academic potential. Meredith worked collaboratively with content-based teams and administrators to facilitate a curriculum with the flexibility to fit individual student needs. Meredith has experience in creating and tracking expenses for corporate professionals and teaming up with clients' finance teams to fulfill invoices.

Meredith grew up just a few houses down from Mark Tribus in North Carolina. She still resides in her hometown accompanied by her chihuahua, Axel.
